

THE BIG STORY

A WEEKLY PUBLICATION FROM THE MEDIA DESK

BORNO STATE COORDINATOR BAGS AWARD FROM THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF NIGERIAN STUDENTS (NANS)

How to Manage Work Stress

Here are some useful tips to manage work stress:

1. Prioritize and organize.
2. Be clear on requirements.
3. Try to be positive.
4. When you are stuck, go out and take a walk.
5. Take a walk during your lunch break.
6. Take control of the situation.
7. Get enough sleep.
8. Form positive relationships.
9. Have a to do list.
10. Stay away from conflict and Kick Your bad habits away.

-Culled from www.verywellmind.com

Edited by: Rosemary Nwokemodo

The NIMC Borno State Coordinator, Mr. Zaman Mshepala receiving his award from the representative of the National Association of Nigerian Students (NANS), Zone C Chapter, Maiduguri, Borno State

The National Identity Management Commission (NIMC), State Coordinator Mr. Zaman Y. Mshepala has been honored with a Meritorious Service Award by the National Association of Nigerian Students (NANS) during the week, in Borno State.

The award was presented to him at the NIMC Maiduguri Office by the representatives of the Zone C chapter of the Association in recognition of his outstanding service, achievements and relentless service in contributing and bringing enrolment closer to the students in the State.

While addressing the students at the award presentation, the Borno State Coordinator stated that the Commission was working to provide assured identity for all.

"The NIMC vision is to provide sustainable world-class identity management solution to affirm identity, enhance governance and service delivery, which is why NIMC Borno is tirelessly working to bring enrolment to residents of the state."

Mr. Zaman Mshepala further appreciated the Association of Nigerian Students for the recognition and assured them the enrolment exercise will be continually made accessible to all residents in Borno State in spite of the insurgency in some areas.

Reported by Ibrahim Amarja, NIMC Media Desk Officer, Borno State

SOKOTO STATE OFFICE RECEIVES THE BACKING OF NIS COMPTROLLER

L-R: The National Identity Management Commission (NIMC) Sokoto State Coordinator, Engr. Garba Alhaji with Nigerian Immigration Service (NIS) Comptroller Sokoto State, Mr. Muhammad N. Hassan in the State Office

The Nigerian Immigration Service (NIS) Comptroller Sokoto State, Mr. Muhammad N. Hassan paid an unscheduled supervision visit to National Identity Management Commission (NIMC) Sokoto state office recently.

The visit was part of efforts to ensure his staff are performing their duties in all enrollment centres across the state.

This is in fulfilment of the collaboration between the two government agencies in making sure that the NIMC fulfils its mandate.

While addressing the State

Coordinator, he emphasized that he would be pleased to receive reports of any officer who abstains from duty and immediately should be directed to him for further actions.

Engr. Garba Alhaji in his remarks, expressed his appreciation and assured the State Comptroller that both agencies would continue to work harmoniously in order to achieve NIMC's goals and objectives.

Reported by Aminu Danjariri, NIMC Media Desk Officer, Sokoto State

NIN Enrolment is Free
Don't Give Money

www.nin.gov.ng

FORGOT YOUR NIN?
National Identification Number

DIAL *346#

AVAILABLE ON MTN AND AIRTEL NETWORKS