7 Tips to Expand Your Personal Capacity

Expanding your capacity simply means being able to do things you weren't capable of before. Life is all about growing and change, being different from the person you were yesterday, Here are some simple steps to take

1. Take a new challenge you need to move out of your comfort zone and take up something new that will be challenging, you'll never know what you are capable of till you try.

2. Make sure it's exciting- Working on something that excites you makes it much easier and increases your willingness to see it through

3. Make it fun- Surprises and pitfalls will most likely occur along the way. Just like a game, that makes it fun and easier to handle failure.

4. Focus- Don't spread yourself too thin. Don't try to do too many things at once. That's a sure recipe for failure.

5. Invest- If it's a worthy challenge then it's worth your time and money. There's no reason not to invest in it.

6. Take risks- Those who aren't willing to take risks may never move to the next level. You might fail but you will learn a lot in the process. They will make you a better player.

7. Move on- Once you achieve certain level of mastery in a particular challenge, move on and take a new, more difficult challenge.

Enforcement Of The Mandatory Use Of The NIN: What NIMC Hopes To Achieve

In line with the gazetted policies approved by the Honorable Attorney General of the Federation (HAGF) and the Minister of Justice in November, 2017.

The Enforcement of the Mandatory use of the NIN will automatically make the NIN a precondition for conducting any transaction that requires a means identification in the Country, further strengthening the practicality of the National Identity Management System.

The enforcement of these regulations will;

- Enable NIMC set standards,
- Enable the enforcement of the use of the NIN,

- Create an avenue for revenue generation
- Enable the commission to scale up in populating the National Database
- Ensure best practices for interoperability and conformity
- And ensure a robust and reliable National system for identity management

In conclusion, the enforcement of the mandatory use of NIN will ensure a sustainable Identity Management system to affirm identity, enhance governance and service delivery in Nigeria is achieved. It is our duty as Staff and stakeholders to work collectively towards this achievement.

Stanbic IBTC, Others Begin Implementation Of The Mandatory Use Of The NIN

In line with the recently gazetted policies that makes the use of the National Identification Number (NIN) mandatory, Stanbic IBTC Bank in its bid to begin the implementation sent out messages to its customers on the requirement of the NIN for any financial transaction going forward.

Other Agencies like the Nigerian Immigration Services have long implemented the policy by making the NIN mandatory for processing any travel document. It is expected that other Agencies will follow suit.

With this development, the NIMC will surely surpass its projected target of 50 Million enrolments by December 2018.
